

There's loads to do around Bundoran that won't cost you anything except your time and concentration...

Why Not...?

Take the Sculpture Trail...?

Sculpture

Details

Artist Name: Brendan McGloin Title: Carraige na Nean, (Rock of the birds)
Year of Installation: 2000
Size: 3m arch, 2m monolith
Medium: Limestone, Sandstone, Lead, Granite
Location: Promenade Bundoran
Description: Monolith

Artist Name: Locky Morris Title: Dry
Year of Installation: 2000
Medium: Bronze

Location: Various around Promenade Bundoran.
Description: DRY is a series of 6 bronze towels placed permanently at locations along the shorefront - the image featured is that of a towel discarded by a careless bather. Can you find his runners?

Artist Name: Walker & Walker Title: Double Daisy
Year of Installation: 2000
Size: 60 x 60 x 150 cm approx.

Medium: Painted cast bronze
Location: Seafront playground beside Waterworld Bundoran
Description: Two over sized daisies cast in bronze and painted, interlocking in the manner of a daisy chain

Artist Name: Grace Weir Title: 1000 Silver Limpets
Year of Installation: 2000
Size: approx 50m

Medium: Chrome plated stainless steel
Location: Car Park below the bridge opposite Edwardian Terrace
Description: 1000 limpets cast in stainless steel and chrome-plated, forming a straight line along a wall. Count them and see...

Artist Name: Brendan McGloin Title: Aolchloch Punta, limestone punt.
Year of Installation: 2002

Size: 8.5m long x 2m wide x 1.3m high
Medium: Limestone, Sandstone and Granite
Location: West End Bundoran
Description: The seating when viewed as a whole represents a boat based on the kind used by local fishermen during the mid 1900's. The project is site specific.

Artist Name: Brendan McGloin Title: An Triur Ceann, The Triskle Heads,
Year of Installation: 2002

Size: 2m x 5m
Medium: Limestone and Sandstone
Location: Outside Bundoran Civic Offices & Library
Description: Three heads carved in one block of Limestone set upon a sandstone column with a capping stone between, reading the names of the three masters in Gaelic.

Artist Name: Elizabeth Caffrey & Sean Campbell

Title: Between the known and Unknown

Year of Installation: 2006

Size: 2.9m H 3m L 1.3m W

Medium: Cast and welded bronze reinforced with stainless steel

Location: Located at the highest point on the N15 Ballyshannon Bundoran bypass.

Description: In selecting both the site and the windswept Hawthorn Tree, we hope to reactivate the public's interest in the traditions associated with the Hawthorn and its association with the Rath structures.